

CONSUMER BANKERS ASSOCIATION TRIES TO WEAKEN INDIANA'S TELEPHONE PRIVACY LAW

I strongly appose any change to the Indiana Do Not Call law. By allowing the banking industry to weaken the law it opens up the door to EVERY business who has ever had a relationship with a customer to be able to call, which pretty much defeats the entire purpose of the law.